

Overview of past Trondheim Conferences on Biodiversity

Ms. Ellen Hambro, Director General, Norwegian Environment Agency

Norwegian Environment Agency welcomes you!

Photo: Participants at the 2013 Trondheim Conference on Biodiversity, IISD Reporting Service

Earlier themes of the Conference

1993: The Science-Policy Interface of CBD

1996: Invasive Alien Species

1999: The Ecosystem approach for Sustainable use

2003: Technology Transfer and Capacity Building

2007: Ecosystems and People - Biodiversity for Development

2010: Getting the Biodiversity Targets right- Working for Sustainable Development

2013: Ecology and Economy for a Sustainable Society

Photo: Rapporteur Jerry Harrison, UNEP-WCMC, presents the draft report, IISD Reporting Service

Qualities of the Trondheim Conferences

- Providing input to the work under the CBD
- Best available and recognised knowledge
- Capacity building
- Inspirational platform with multiple stakeholders

Peter Johan Schei
Photo: IISD Reporting Service

Biodiversity and agriculture

- Numerous links between biodiversity and agriculture
- Knowledge, challenges, trade-offs and possibilities
- Integration of biodiversity and agriculture into policies and actions

Photos (from left):
Sissel Rübberdt,
Norwegian
Environment Agency
and iStockphoto

Knowledge – discussions - networking

Photo: Frøset Østre

www.miljodirektoratet.no